

G.I.JOE

EndGame

LATER....

And since you are here, we figured any major movement
of weapons or assets would tip Cobra off to this location!

Hmmm, lack of firepower is a disadvantage, but using what we have will catch Cobra Commander off guard. It may be the Edge we need!

You never have to apologize to me for
doing your duty,
Overlord!

Oh, and one more thing! If Cobra Commander hasn't found out we're here, yet, ensure he does by the end of Today! HERE is where we will make our Stand!

No, but if it will get you out of some tedious manual labor, I have a feeling you'll be more than willing to show me!

Here ya go, standard adjustable wrench,
not the Sceptor of Kings, but just as adept at fixing modern Chariots as it is cracking skulls!

You think it will work? My Plan?
You're not just saying that because you are the closest thing to a friend
I have, are you?

Like I said, I don't like gettin
played for someone else's benefit.
If I thought it was gonna be a slaughter,
I'd have been gone by now...now, get that bolt tightened!

LATER THAT NIGHT...

IF YOU WERE ANYONE ELSE, I'D GHOST YOUR ASS RIGHT NOW!

Let's keep up the pressure.
plow through their defenses!

No Prisoners! Kill them all except Mindbender, Overlord and Riddick! They're MINE!

You get it? The Dumb-ass didn't even realize it was loaded....

* upphFF *

Gurgie

Sir, the Lab is on the next level below us!

Resistance is light! If they wanna make the lab their last stand, I'll make it their tomb!

The Lab...

Ahhhhh.....

Guillotine! Take the Plague and form a perimeter around this installation, no one in or out!

Tell all Teams I want them to search every crawl space, false floor, sewer pipe and keyhole!

Oh, and don't forget to have someone execute the prisoners!

I didn't give the order to cut power! Who killed the power?

Man, it's Pitch Black!
I can't see a damn thing!

You say something?

umpfh!

What, are you guys wrestling over here?

huh?

PFTHH...

You'll never get through my armor with THAT thing!

Even with the lights back on,
you won't find a chink in this Armor!

No, what you killed before were soulless clones.
Shells of men. Creatures created for a single Purpose: To Conquer the World. I'm more than that....

I am more than my Predecessors. I have their innate abilities, but without their Ego and free of their greed and single-minded pursuit of conquest. I am my own man. I don't want the world for myself. But I CAN give it to you...for a small price!

What Price? And Why should I trust you? Do you think I'm really gonna believe you don't want to take Cobra from me and then take the world? I wasn't born yesterday!

You're either insane one way, or crazy the other...
either way...

Welcome to Cobra,
GENERAL SERPENTOR!
